Uniform Policy

Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) said: O Allah, praise is for You for what You have clothed me with, I ask You for the goodness from this clothing and the goodness for what is was made for; I seek refuge from its evil and the evil for which it was made. (Abu Dawood)

Uniform Policy

1. Introduction

1.1 The school promotes excellence in everything its students undertake. The uniform and appearance of our students will support the ethos of our School; providing the students with pride to be part of the School and enabling them to act as ambassadors for the School (even after they leave or graduate from the School).

1.2 High standards of presentation are required at all times when wearing the school uniform. Whenever the school uniform is worn, it must be complete and not mixed with non-uniform clothing and appearance. This includes when travelling to and from school.

2. Uniform guide

2.1 The items listed below are compulsory for all students (unless otherwise indicated). This can be purchased from any store.

2.2 A different dress code may be required for school events where students have been allowed to wear non-uniform.

4. School bag/pencil case/stationary bag

4.1 School bags, pencil cases or stationary bags must not display offensive or political images or slogans.

5. School bag/pencil case/stationary bag

5.1 Mobile phones and other electronic items like tablets/earpods are not allowed (unless given permission) in school.

6. Financial support

6.2 Families which are experiencing genuine hardship and require support to purchase the uniform may meet with the Head Teacher to discuss.

7. Breaches of uniform code

7.1 Students need to make sure they are following the uniform set by the school which is explained to all students in the induction; this includes the black dress code, the cardigans (without large motifs), and black school socks. Uniforms will be checked regularly to ensure they conform to the ethos and instructions of the institute and that the students look smart, well presented and 'ready to learn'. In the event that a student has the wrong uniform, the teacher or member of staff will challenge the student and instruct them to address the issue.
7.2 For significant and repeated breaches of the uniform code, the matter will be referred, and the student may be sent home to address the concern before returning to school.
7.3 If a prohibited or offensive item (such as an offensive image or slogan on clothes or stationery) is brought into school, the item will be confiscated.

8. Monitoring, evaluation and review

8.1 The SLT and DSL has a specific responsibility to ensure the fair application of this policy.
